S. W. Mitchell Capital – who we are

Who we are

Who we are

- Long term investors
- One single focus: European equities
- Over 35 years' experience investing solely in Europe
- Long-standing team, who have spent most of their careers working together
- Bottom-up, fundamentally driven investment philosophy focused on unrecognised value
- We build unconstrained concentrated best ideas portfolios

All data sources: Waverton, FactSet as at 30 June 2024. All performance shown is cumulative and net of fees in GBP for Morgan Grenfell European Fund (January 1990 – June 1996), JO Hambro Investment Management European Fund (January 1999 – March 2005) and a typical S.W. Mitchell Capital Pan European equity mandate (April 2005 – current). From April 2005 the performance results presented are hypothetical, for informational purposes only, and are not intended to, nor do they, represent the actual performance of any one specific client or group of clients over the time period shown. There can be no assurances that the performance can or will be achieved. No guarantee of future performance can or will be made. Actual returns will vary depending on a variety of factors and conditions. Performance shown from April 2005 is for four chain linked typical Pan European Mandates that had a similar investment objective: the first from Feb 1999 until Aug 1999, the second between Sept 1999 and Dec 2011, the third from Jan 2012 to Jan 2019, and the fourth from Feb 2019 to current. Any further information required is available from the Investment Manager upon request.

Our team

How our team works

- Low turnover, long term investors with independent and often contrarian views
- Ability to endure short term pain and remain steadfast in our convictions
- Over 30 years of experience dedicated exclusively to European equities
- Team that has worked together for most of their careers
- Research process captures the entire market capitalisation spectrum
- Investing only in the most attractive ideas without regard to size or benchmark constraints
- Hunting for ideas on the ground, not behind a computer screen

Our investment process

Investment approach

Sustainable earnings → mispriced growth

Companies able to generate faster and more durable growth than the market understands

- Underappreciated market position because other investors are more short term or macro led
- Cash generation and reinvestment into the business at high returns
- Growing market share and/or sustainable competitive advantage creating high barriers to entry
- High quality, often niche businesses in under-researched corners of the market
- Superior management teams aligned with shareholders

Underappreciated change → mispriced value

Companies and industries undergoing significant yet underappreciated transitions

- Cyclical industries near an inflexion point with attractive margin of safety
- Restructuring and corporate simplification (including spinoffs)
- Changing of industry dynamics through supply/demand disruptions
- Regulatory change
- Product innovation
- New management team or improved shareholder-aligned incentives

Investment philosophy

Sustainable earnings example: Soitec

- Invested in 2017 at €37. Share price currently €116 (as at 16 July 2024)
- Manufacturer of Silicon-On-Insulator (SOI) which boasts greater electricity and energy efficiency than traditional silicon
- Explosive demand on the back of 5G rollout. Silicon carbide for the automobile industry could provide a significant new opportunity for the group
- Revenues should grow at 20-30% per annum over the next few years. Trading at a discount to similar types of businesses in the U.S.

Underappreciated change example: Danone

- The world's largest fresh dairy and plant based drinks company. Number 2 in infant nutrition and packaged water
- We believe that organic growth will be faster than expected driven by continued 15% growth in plant-based drinks
- Infant nutrition should grow faster than anticipated underpinned by good growth in the ultra-premium category in China
- The stock trades at a 30% discount to peers

Investment process...

Before we buy

Idea Sourcing

- Ideas can come from anywhere: companies, industry contacts, blogs, third party research etc.

Company meetings – the core of our process

- 1,000 meetings with 400 companies per year generate unique angles and insights into industry and company dynamics
- Meet with competitors, suppliers, clients to open up new angles and perspectives
- Seek access to non-finance members of the management team, such as head of research or head of sales

Valuation work

- Cash generation ability, growth potential, reinvestment opportunities and return on capital

Portfolio construction

- Analysis of overall portfolio fit

While we hold

Ongoing monitoring meetings

- We aim to speak to all of our portfolio companies once a quarter
- We speak to competitors, suppliers and clients

Ongoing reevaluation of the investment case

- Incorporating new insights and developments

Portfolio analysis

- Continuous reassessment of the overall positioning of the portfolio

...investment process...

Why we sell

We were right

- Our investment case played out as planned and we now judge the stock to be fully priced

We were wrong

- Our investment case turned out to be incorrect

Investment case has changed

- Material new developments change the investment case and we no longer think it an attractive investment

We found something better

What we build

Benchmark and style agnostic, unconstrained, bottom up research - driven portfolios

- 20-30 stocks
- 20% p.a. turnover
- 7-9% tracking error
- 90%+ active share

...investment process

Team interaction

Team structure designed to promote interaction

- Open plan office. Real time discussion of ideas
- All members are European generalists
- Potential and existing holdings are met and analysed by multiple members of the team
- Weekly investment team meetings; monthly fund reviews
- Company meeting and research notes distributed through entire investment team

ESG – a natural part of bottom-up analysis

Signatory of:

ESG

Fully integrated in the investment research process

- Proprietary ESG scoring tool used as a part of our in depth, bottom-up analysis

Flexible and nuanced

- We focus our research on the most material topics for any given stock/ industry

Relationships and engagements

- We value building long lasting, strong relationships with our portfolio companies
- We are not activist investors but encourage best in class behaviour and disclosures

Managing risk

Managing risk

Operational risk

- Reviewed in quarterly meetings of the Risk Committee
- Partners' Meeting reviews and discusses Risk Committee output
- Disaster recovery plan
constant system backups
- Independent review, via external compliance consultant

Portfolio risk

- Real time portfolio monitoring, including cash levels and sector/country exposures
- Portfolio composition constantly reviewed by investment manager, and discussed in weekly stock meeting. More formal discussion in monthly review meetings
- Constant monitoring of liquidity both at the stock and portfolio level
- Bespoke dealing system hardwires fund restrictions
- Daily reconciliations for open trades. Cash, stock and fee reconciliation twice a month

Stock specific risk

- Overriding concern is to avoid a permanent loss of capital
- Volatility and risk are not synonymous: short term patience can achieve outsized long term returns
- Detailed balance sheet analysis for all our holdings (e.g. gearing, Z-scores)
- Ongoing rigorous company meeting and monitoring programme
